History

Vembu has ventured into the Backup & Disaster Recovery market in 2002. Since then, the only focus is on building a comprehensive data protection solution. Over the last 15+ years, Vembu has set footprints around the globe and is trusted by several companies in different sectors like private, public and government to protect their critical data. We constantly work towards enhancing our solution to ensure data protection and business continuity for the IT infrastructure of every business.

Our Vision

Vembu's vision is to empower businesses to make Backup & DR software as a part of their day-to-day business operations to protect their critical data at an affordable price.

Our Philosophy

- We are not gifted. We work hard. We want a better tomorrow.
- We try even harder. Nothing comes perfect the first time.
- We persist. Nothing special about us.
- We want our work to be special.
- It's not about winning or losing. It's about sincerity of purpose.

Our Customers

Vembu is honored to serve some of the finest companies in the world. Among our customer base, you will find recognizable world-wide firms as well as reputable local companies.
